"American Deadbeats"

INT./EXT. VEGAS ROADS - NIGHT

Bill (20s, assertive), Jerry (20s, slow but good hearted), and Holly (20s, outgoing) are driving down the busy Vegas roads. Lights all around them. Holly sits in the backseat, while Jerry drives the car.

JERRY

Well Bill, I can't believe you did it. Made your first feature film.

BILL

We did it man. It was a team effort.

JERRY

Do you think you made a good film?

BILL

Oh yeah man, I think people will definitely enjoy it. It's not your stereotypical alien flick, you know?

HOLLY

I wish we would've had time to go to the casinos.

JERRY

Some of the guys and I went last night.

HOLLY

Did you?

JERRY

Probably shouldn't have gone, I lost $200.

HOLLY

Yeah, I probably would've lost money too.

JERRY

Bill says sometimes it's good to be broke because you're free from materialism and consumerism, isn't that right, Bill?

Bill is distracted.
